

Sandra and I wish to thank you for all the hard work you did on our behalf, and all the sound advice you gave to us.

Our house is rapidly becoming a wonderful home and we are finding the vast majority of people to be very helpful and friendly - although my constant attempts to 'parlez Francais' are often causing a few giggles.

Once again, many, many, thanks for all you have done for us. Please pass our best wishes to your staff.