

May I thank you for all your help and the reassurance you were able to give to us throughout our French house purchase.

It was most helpful to know that there was always a reassuring voice on the other end of the phone to ease concerns at various stages.

The final signing session all went through very smoothly.