

When we set out on the purchase of our property I obtained quotations from two legal firms. The other firm was several hundred pounds cheaper but bombarded me with so many forms and demanded payment in advance that I was completely put off.

I have to say that we have had an excellent service from you and Laetitia and I am very glad that I made the decision to use Guellec-Digby & Co. The service that we were given was professional, efficient and pleasurable to deal with.

Thank you very much – I would have no hesitation in recommending you or using your practice again.
